

September 1, 2008

10:15 AM - Steven Cain (my neighbor on Melrose Drive) said alot of tree limbs are down, but no flooding. Wind is still alittle strong, but they are doing fine.

9:00 AM - Terry Talamo said the Harvey Canal at Boomtown looks great so far. He's driving to check out Plantation Estates and for the most part everything looks good.

8:30 AM - Bill Capo was standing outside in Gretna. He said no reports of flooding yet like it was expected.

8:00 AM - Major Tim Kurgan with the U.S. Corps of Engineers was on WWL. He said there are no reports of water over the Harvey Canal at this time.

7:44 AM - PE homeowner just told me an update in Baton Rouge "Just wanted to give you a report from Baton Rouge--things are somewhat windy, not really much rain and thankfully we still have power!"

6:15 AM - Lost power in the neighborhood.
